FEDERAL GRAND JURY MEETS.

After an adjournment of several weeks the Federal Grand Jury assembled in Judge Dole's court this morning at 10 o'clock. There seems little business likely to be presented to the body. Only three petty cases are to come up.

One is the Doris Lancaster case who is charged with adultery and the others are two assault and battery cases on the high seas.

LAUKEA AND BROWN

Seventh Precincts, because the ballots had not been placed in the envelopes according to law, and there had been no distinguishing returns on the tag on one of these bags, to tell what the bag contained. The objections were purely technical.

The canvases of the precincts then proceeded. Before Chief Justice Frear the ballots from the Sixth Precinct were counted. A. M. Brown, the contestant, and Curtis Laukea, the respondent, were present, and assisted in looking over these ballots. W. S. Edgins represented Laukea and W. T. Rawlins for Brown, from the legal side.

Associate Justice Hartwell handled the ballots from the Seventh of the Fourth District. Judge Gear represented Brown and Judge W. Austin White represented Laukea in this canvase. Before Associate Justice, Wilber the Eighth of the Fourth was canvased. E. A. Doughty, the County Attorney, acted for Brown, and J. Lightfoot for Laukea. Democratic County Chairman H. J. Mossman was also there in the interest of Laukea and James H. Boyd looked after Brown's interest.

WON BIG TAX FORECLOSURE LIEN

DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL PROSSER SUCCESSFULLY CONDUCTED CASE.

The Territory won a good sized foreclosure of a tax lien before Circuit Judge Hardy in chambers at Lihue last Saturday. The case was against the Makae Sugar Company.

Deputy Attorney General Prosser returned from Kauai this morning where he had tried the case. The suit was to recover the property taxes of the plantation. Judgment for $4,400 with a 10 per cent penalty of $440, and 10 per cent interest since May 15, was given the Territory.

SHERIFF GAVE TAYLOR BADGE

In police court this afternoon, before Judge Whitney, the cases of alleged assault with a revolver and showing a police badge with intent to deceive, against A. P. Taylor, Advertiser reporter, in which the supposed keeper of an alleged gambling house on Achi lane is complainant, came up for trial. Sheriff Brown testified that he had delivered Taylor a police badge but had never issued him a commission, although he had been under the impression that a commission had been issued by him. The case is continuing.

GREATER THAN EVER CHRISTMAS 1906.

During this great remembrance and gift Season, the greater Diamonds are more fully prepared than ever, in all their well known history, before the buying public, to satisfy all in Holiday Gifts. Why? Because we study carefully and faithfully the wants of the people in all circumstances. And another secret of our success lies in the fact that our Buyers, make special journeys to the different factories and personally select new and complete lines of the very latest novelties in CHINA, BRIC-A-BRAC, "DEN" MATERIALS, etc., with the result that we have new and complete lines within reach of all. Last year, our store was smiling in its Christmas attire, this season it fairly laughs, for we have spent thousands of dollars in extensive and beautiful improvements, which the steady increase of our business has made absolutely necessary, in order to accommodate our new and vast assortment of Goods.

Among the many lines in which we excel this year are the following:

Libbey's Rich Cut Glass

Comprising Dusters, Jugs, Vases, Celery Trays, Bowls, Napkins, Baskets, and many articles too numerous to mention.

Sterling Silverware

Beautiful Designs in Table Services, Fancy Pieces such as Ladies' Fish, Salad and Cold Meat Forks.

Beautiful Hand-Painted China

Consisting of Claret Jugs, Steins, Whiskey Jugs, Berry Jugs, Cake Plates, Chocolate Sets, Cups and Saucers, etc.
